Dear Bob:

In a letter dated April 15, 1976, I established for public record that I was a Corporator of the Charlestown Savings Bank, among a list of other organizations with which I had an official relationship. Thus I wish to disclose at this time that in addition to being a Corporator of the Bank, I was, on January 13, elected a Trustee. As indicated in my earlier communication, I shall state my dual role if the Charlestown Savings Bank comes under discussion at Authority meetings and refrain from voting if there is a motion that concerns the Bank.

Very truly yours,

James E. Cofield, Jr.
